

TIMES-VIRGINIAN

Established 1892
"In the Heart of the Dark Tobacco Belt"

$1.00 per copy in advance

Not to be used for advertising purposes

Entered as second-class matter, October 3, 1908

Post Office at Appomattox, Va., second-class matter, under act of Congress.

Communications must be accompanied by name and address of writer. Unchecked manuscripts will not be returned unless accompanied by return address.

Advertisements: Being notices for the first time of any kind for each issue.

Classified advertisements: per word and week.

Display advertisements: per inch and line and the per inch for each subsequent insertion.

Legal advertisements: per inch and line and the per inch for each subsequent insertion.

Obituary notices: per line and the per line for each subsequent insertion.

All transient advertising payable in advance.

A. H. CLEMENT, Editor.

THURSDAY, SEPT. 2, 1926

CALDWELL—LEWIS

A wedding of interest to many

Virginia was that of Miss Ruby

Daniel Caldwell and Mr. Charles

Davis Lewis, which was solemnized Tuesday, August 31st, at 10 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents near here. Only the immediate families were present.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. L. Caldwell, brother of the bride, before an impressive gathering of relatives and friends. The bride wore a gown of white tulle and carried a bouquet of white flowers.

After a piano solo, the bride and groom entered the strains of the "Lohengrin" march, played by Mrs. C. L. Caldwell.

After the wedding, the bride and groom were entertained by the bride's parents. The bride and groom will leave for their new home on Friday morning.

The bride is a charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Caldwell, a well known family of this county.

The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Lewis, a well known family of this county. The bride and groom are both graduates of the University of Virginia. The bride is a member of the Alpha

Chi chapter of the University of Virginia. The groom is a member of the Phi Kappa Psi chapter of

the University of Virginia. The

bride and groom are both graduates of the University of Virginia. The bride is a member of the Alpha

Chi chapter of the University of

Virginia. The groom is a member

of the Phi Kappa Psi chapter of

the University of Virginia. The

bride and groom are both graduates

of the University of Virginia. The

bride is a member of the Alpha

Chi chapter of the University of

Virginia. The groom is a member

of the Phi Kappa Psi chapter of

the University of Virginia. The

bride and groom are both graduates

of the University of Virginia. The

bride is a member of the Alpha

Chi chapter of the University of

Virginia. The groom is a member

of the Phi Kappa Psi chapter of

the University of Virginia. The

bride and groom are both graduates

of the University of Virginia. The

bride is a member of the Alpha

Chi chapter of the University of

Virginia. The groom is a member

of the Phi Kappa Psi chapter of

the University of Virginia. The

bride and groom are both graduates

of the University of Virginia. The

bride is a member of the Alpha

Chi chapter of the University of

Virginia. The groom is a member

of the Phi Kappa Psi chapter of

the University of Virginia. The

bride and groom are both graduates

of the University of Virginia. The

EVERY WEEK

Watch This Column For

FAIR NEWS

Edited by L. CRAWLEY

CLUB WORK

Boys and girls enrolled in club work will have an Achievement

Day each day at the Appomattox

County Fair, Appomattox, Va.,

October 13 to 15.

The contests at the fair will climax a series of competitions that have been in progress in this locality for several months under the leadership of local and state club leaders. The youngsters will stage a fair within a fair, for they will have junior competitions in nearly every department of the fair.

Officials of the fair, who are deeply interested in the club work program, have been unusually liberal in their offers of prize money. Many of the leading merchants, too, have enrolled in the club work cause, and are offering special premiums in addition to those put up by the fair officials.

All of the important club projects stressed by state club leaders will be staged at the fair. Among them are Pigs, Poultry, Dairy, Corn, and Soy beans.

Visitors will be able to visualize just what the boys and girls have accomplished under club instruction. The youngsters must not only prepare their animals for the show ring, if they are entered in livestock contests, but they must keep a record of the animal, showing when it was born, how much it weighed at various dates, and the cost of feed, as well as other data required under club rules.

Competent instructors will be in charge of the boys' and girls' activities at the fair. Several of the winners at the fair should find their way to the International Livestock Exposition to be held in Chicago, the goal of all boys and girls enrolled in

club work.

YOUTH MUST BE SERVED

The truth of this old adage will be brought forcibly to the attention of visitors to the coming Appomattox County Fair,

according to officials.

This year's Appomattox County

Fair will be much like the fairs of other years, excepting that more boys and girls will have exhibits than ever before. Children, through school exhibits and participation in club work, will enter exhibits in nearly every department of this year's fair.

Not only will they compete in their own classes, but also in many of the open competitions, where they will strive for first honors in competition with their peers.

"In many respects this year's fair will be a 'Children's Fair.'"

"It used to be that children were to be seen, not heard but this is no longer true, at least not at the Appomattox County Fair. The children will not only be seen but heard, for in many of the contests, especially in the club competitions, the

Appomattox Boys

Win

County Agent Hudgins has been notified by the judges at the Blacksburg State Short Course that Joe O'Brien, and Clyde O'Brien both members of this county club and who are this year members in the graduating class of the Appomattox

High School scored the highest points in the department of Agronomy in a demonstration of soil improvement recently held there at the summer short course. There were four other teams from over the state competing for this honor. Besides Rockingham county, it is the first time that any county has received the same honor for two successive years, as it is remembered that last year Richmond county won this honor, and these two boys were also members of the team. The boys were in the class of Appomattox High School.

As a result of this high honor two young men will be given a free trip to Camp Vail, Mass., where a contest for similar work will be held between the 12 estern states. This trip will consist of all expenses paid with a day in Washington and one day in New York sightseeing and 10 or 12 days stay at the Camp Vail camp.

It is also recalled that last year it was an Appomattox boy Richard Harvey who took the first prize at this interstate judging contest, while Eugene

Carson came 5th in the same contest.

Visitors will be able to visu-

alize just what the boys and girls

have accomplished under club in-

struction. The youngsters must

not only prepare their animals

for the show ring, if they are

entered in livestock con-

tests, but they must keep a record of the animal, showing

when it was born, how much it

weighed at various dates, and

the cost of feed, as well as other

data required under club rules.

Competent instructors will be

in charge of the boys' and girls'

activities at the fair. Several of

the winners at the fair should

find their way to the Inter-

national Livestock Exposition to

be held in Chicago, the goal of

all boys and girls enrolled in

club work.

YOUTH MUST BE SERVED

The truth of this old adage

will be brought forcibly to the

attention of visitors to the coming Appomattox County Fair,

according to officials.

This year's Appomattox County

Fair will be much like the fairs

of other years, excepting that

more boys and girls will have

exhibits than ever before. Children, through school exhibits and

participation in club work, will

enter exhibits in nearly every

department of this year's fair.

Not only will they compete in

their own classes, but also in

many of the open competitions,

where they will strive for first

honors in competition with their

peers.

Twenty Second

"OLD RELIABLE"

The 22nd annual exhibition of the Lynchburg Fair will be held with Trustee on day of sale, with H. H. HARVEY, Trustee, 9-26-26

In the Clerk's Office of the Circuit Court of the County of Appomattox on the 14th day of August 1926.

Plaintiff,

defendant,

The object of this sale is to obtain an ad-equity divorce from the defendant, Anne Morgan, on the grounds of desertion.

And an affidavit being filed, the court has ordered that a copy of the decree be placed in the hands of the